- We are Republicans; “we oppose the use of public funds to perform or promote abortion.”
- We are Republicans; we support the appointment of judges who respect traditional family values and the sanctity of human life.”
- We are Republicans; “we support the right of parents to consent to medical treatment for their minor children.”
- We are Republicans; “we reaffirm the moral obligation to be good stewards of the God-given natural beauty and resources of our country.”
- We are Republicans; we “are deeply committed to marriage between one man and one woman, thus ruling out gay and lesbian marriage and polyamory.”
- We are Republicans; we “do not believe that Title IX applies to sexual orientation.”
- We are Republicans; we “salute the several states which have filed suit against the move to open restrooms, locker rooms, and other facilities based on sexual orientation instead of birth sex.”
- We are Republicans; we “respect the rights of conscience of healthcare professionals.”
- We are Republicans; we believe “the Bill of Rights lists religious liberty, with its rights of conscience, as the first freedom to be protected.”
- We are Republicans; “we strongly support the freedom of Americans to act in accordance with their religious beliefs.”
- We are Republicans; we believe that “government cannot create prosperity, though government can limit or destroy it.”

- We are Republicans; “we uphold the right of individuals to keep and bear arms, a right secured by the Second Amendment.”
- We are Republicans; we believe we should maintain “the strongest military on earth.”
- We are Republicans; we desire a smaller government funded by less money, a free market economy, freedom of religion and freedom of speech. We do not see individuals as victims, but as people created by God with a specific gender. We do not support the cancel culture, and we value life.
- We are Republicans—not perfect, but solid in values. Let’s work hard to preserve our party. God bless America, and God bless the Republican Party!
