

Barbara McAndrew IRIS Fund Mission Statement.

The purpose of the IRIS Fund, (Tennessee Federation of Republican Women's Political Action Committee), is to elect Republican candidates to the Tennessee House of Representatives and Senate.

Financial assistance will be awarded only for a Tennessee state Legislative General Election.

The final decision for disbursement of funds to targeted candidates will be made by the IRIS Fund Committee, subject to approval from the TNFRW Executive Board.

Who is eligible to contribute to the IRIS Fund?

- Any American citizen who is interested in good government for the state of Tennessee.
- Any duly organized unit club of the TNFRW.

Barbara McAndrew IRIS Fund History.

In November of 1997, the Tennessee Federation of Republican Women, the TNFRW, Board of Directors established a political action committee, a PAC, to provide financial assistance to Republican candidates seeking election to the Tennessee General Assembly.

To honor the effective and diligent efforts of our outgoing TNFRW President in 1997, the Board called this PAC the Barbara McAndrew IRIS Fund.

How much can one contribute?

There is no limit. Contributions to the IRIS Fund are not counted against or allotted the allotted amount an individual may personally contribute to a candidate.

Any declared Republican candidate for the State House Representative or Senate may request an application package or for more information.
